

Cover Story

The Amber of Our Thoughts

BY DAVID LEVIN

Four Brandeis researchers investigate how memory works and how we can protect it.

Full Story ▶

Featured Stories

Tableaux for a Troubled World

BY LAWRENCE GOODMAN

Fine arts faculty member Sheida Soleimani's collages are highly personal — and intensely political.

A 'Notorious' Champion of Women

BY PHILIPPA STRUM '59, P'98

In the 1970s, lawyer Ruth Bader Ginsburg developed an unusually successful strategy for fighting sex discrimination.

Rescuing the Past

BY LAWRENCE GOODMAN

A London-based organization races to preserve decaying Jewish heritage sites around the world.

The Brandeis Questionnaire

Author and Wall Street Journal reporter Gregory Zuckerman '88 believes perseverance is the key to overcoming odds.