Alumni Newsletter

December 1, 2024

Dear Friends,

I hope you are all well and had a wonderful, family-filled Thanksgiving. I personally was thrilled to have all my children under one roof, albeit for only a day and a half, and I hope you found some similar nachas.

Winter is a busy time here at YU. We have so many engagement events from which you can choose, so please read carefully and mark your calendars.

I am also excited to introduce you to Eli Azizollahoff, our new Manager of Alumni Engagement. Eli, who graduated from Stern College for Women in 2020, joins us with a strong background in engagement and event planning, so please look for her at our next event and introduce yourself.

I also want to give a shout-out to YU Global, an important part of the Yeshiva University ecosystem that everyone should definitely know more about.

YU Global is a unique center that offers flexible, self-paced certificate programs and customized training to help people at all stages of their careers. This can be especially helpful to those of us who don't have a lot of time but still want to grow professionally. YU Global can help people upskill, re-skill or strengthen themselves or their team, and I really urge you to check them out.

As always, please be in touch with any questions or ideas.

With care,

Beth

A Centennial Celebration

100 Years of Light

Due to an overwhelming response, Yeshiva University's Centennial Hanukkah Dinner is now sold out. We invite you to participate with a donation to our scroll of honor.

Upcoming Events

Shenk Shul Women's Learning

On Wednesday, Dec. 4, 2024, women will gather at Shenk Shul, 560 W. 185th Street, New York, NY 10033, for an evening of independent learning and a featured shiur by Rabbi Aryeh Lebowitz, Abraham Arbesfeld Torah Dean of RIETS. The event begins at 7:30 p.m. and is free, but registration is required. A light dinner will be served.

Sephardic Writing of the Enlightenment

On Thursday, Dec. 5, 2024, join Prof. Carsten Wilke, the inaugural Herman Prins Salomon Fellow, at 7 p.m. for a discussion of Sephardic clandestine writing of the Early Enlightenment.

Finances for Dual Citizens

On Tuesday, Dec. 24, 2024, at 7 p.m., YU in Israel is hosting a discussion at the Gruss Campus in Jerusalem about finances and investments for dual Israeli and American citizens with Aaron Katsman, President of Lighthouse Capital, Rifka Lebowitz of Living Financially Smarter in Israel, and Fred Kahn, CEO of Phillip Stein & Associates.

Getting Real About Real Estate

On Thursday, Jan. 30, 2025, Weil, Gotshal and Manges in midtown New York will host the second annual YU Real Estate Day. Last year's inaugural event sold out, so if you are interested in sponsoring the real estate networking event of the season, email Roslyn Beberman at roz.bebberman@yu.edu. Organized by the Office of Alumni Affairs and the Sy Syms School of Business.

Save the Dates

- Sunday, Feb. 16, 2025: The second annual Women's Yom Iyun: Come Learn at Stern, a Dor l'Dor program of YU, will take place the Sunday of President's Day weekend. All YU alumnae are invited with their daughters, granddaughters—even their old Stern roommate!—to learn with the faculty of the Torah and Spiritual Life at Stern College for Women program.
- Monday, Feb. 17, 2025: The third annual Dor l'Dor men's learning on the Wilf Campus will take place on President's Day. Save the date for an unforgettable experience of Torah learning, for fathers, sons and male alumni from all walks of YU. Come participate in the shiurim and the vibrancy of the Beit Midrash, just like you did when you were a student.
- Saturday, Feb. 22, 2025: Save the date for the third annual Alumni Night with the Macs. Bring the family Motzei Shabbat for dinner at the Max Stern Athletic Center before watching the Macs take on Mount Saint Mary College in the last game of the regular season.
- Saturday, Feb. 22, 2025: Alumni Discount Night at the Seforim Sale. Whether you'll already be at the Macs game for Alumni Night or you're coming in exclusively for the Seforim Sale, Motzei Shabbat is when you can save 5% at the sale just for being an alum. You must have an alumni ID to be eligible for this discount.

YU in Israel

- Alumni in Israel: If you are an alum who lives in Israel, please take a moment to update your information with the alumni office. Let us know how best to reach you and share what kinds of engagement interest you and stay updated on local events and news. For questions or information, reach out to Susan Sheldon, susan.sheldon@yu.edu.
- Resources in Israel: Since Oct. 7, our Israel office has been a resource to both our visiting and local staff, students and alumni in finding meaningful ways to assist Israel in times of need. Whether you're looking to volunteer for a few hours or a few days, we can connect you with impactful opportunities. From working on farms to tying tzitzit for soldiers or cooking for families with loved ones in miluim [reserve duty], we're here to help match you with a project that makes a difference. Again, for questions or information, reach out to Susan Sheldon, susan.sheldon@yu.edu.
- Planning a trip to Israel? Stay connected with YU to make the most of your trip! The Alumni Office at YU Israel can help with recommendations on where to go, how to have impactful volunteer opportunities and just to be a general resource to ensure you feel connected and have a meaningful experience while you're in Israel. Email Susan Sheldon at susan.sheldon@yu.edu to discuss.

Ongoing

Torah Tuesdays

Follow the Office of Alumni Affairs on Facebook and enjoy our Torah Tuesdays feature, where learned alumni are invited to submit a short video to share a bit of Torah wisdom each week. Submit a Torah Tuesday feature yourself at alumni@yu.edu!

Become a Software Developer

YU Global is now accepting applications for the Master of Science in Software Development, a 36-credit, 10-month-long program powered by the InfinityLabs R&D leading-edge curriculum with in-person and online options. Build a job-ready portfolio and receive aggressive job search support. Application deadline is Jan. 4, 2025, for the face-to-face class.

Volunteer Opportunity

Helping Students

Are you interested in helping students with things like quick résumé reviews, informational interviews and preparing for careers in your industry? Please consider joining the YU Mentoring Volunteer Program, a group of over 800 alumni willing to speak to students about career-related topics. Your commitment is extremely flexible, and you set the amount of availability you have for students per month. For any questions or help registering for YU-MVP, contact rebecca.terebelo@yu.edu.
