Alumni Newsletter

April 2025

Dear Friends,

I'm thrilled to share our new alumni website with you - a resource that I hope you will find useful as you navigate your engagement with Yeshiva University.

Not only is the new site much easier to use, you will also find many of your frequently asked questions answered clearly under the “benefits and services” tab. Upcoming alumni events will now all also be conveniently listed, with their registration links, under the “events” tab. Please take a few moments to check out yu.edu/alumni and let me know what you think!

I am sure you all busy gearing up for a joyful and Kosher Pesach. I am personally excited to have my own children home for chag as well as having many generations of family around our Seder table.

With care,

Beth

Upcoming Events

YU Giving Day Is Here

On Wednesday, April 2, 2025, one community will work together on one goal for one day to fund scholarships, support pioneering research, improve our facilities and establish new programs. Donations, no matter the amount, will be combined with the dynamic philanthropy of the YU community, including significant matching gifts, to secure YU's future. Don't want to wait until April 2? Make your gift today and get it multiplied by our matching funds — we'll count it all toward our Giving Day totals!

Cardozo School of Law Reunion

Cardozo alumni are invited for an unforgettable Cardozo Global Alumni Reunion in the heart of London on Thursday/Friday, May 8-9, 2025, where the legacy of the school meets the energy of a global city. Information and reservation»

Israel Day Parade

All YU alumni are invited to march with the University in this year's Israel Day Parade on Sunday, May 18, 2025, celebrating Israel's 77th anniversary as a modern-day state. Attendance is free and registration is required. Save your spot now.

Upcoming Class Reunions

If you are an alum from the classes of 1964, 1965, 1975 or 2000, celebrate your 25th, 50th, 60th and 61st reunions in style at the YU Commencement at Louis Armstrong Stadium at the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center on Thursday, May 22, 2025. You and your fellow alumni are invited for a private lunch, after which you'll put on full academic attire and march at Commencement, just like you did so many years ago. Registration is required and closes on Friday, April 4.

Past Events

- Almost 200 alumni visited The Anne Frank Exhibition: Antisemitism in Europe Revisited on Tuesday, March 4, 2025. The Office of Alumni Affairs and the Emil A. and Jenny Fish Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies hosted a unique evening of learning in community with dinner, a tour inside a real-life recreation of The Annex where the Franks hid during the Holocaust and a panel of Fish Center experts to put the experience into modern-day context. See photos»
- World Emunah hosted a special women's event on Thursday, March 6, 2025, in honor of International Women's Day. The event featured guest speakers and multiple panels exploring women's leadership in various fields. Stephanie Strauss ('89S), Executive Director of Yeshiva University in Israel and Assistant Vice President for Israel Strategy and Enrollment, participated in a panel on women's leadership in the social sector. Naomi Maryles ('96S) contributed to a discussion on women's leadership in the business world. Additionally, Yaffa Zilbershats, Academic Chair of Yeshiva University in Israel, joined a third panel to discuss the role of women in shaping Israel's future. See photos»
- Around 50 young alumnae gathered at Shenk Shul on Wednesday, March 19, 2025, for an evening of women's independent learning and a featured shiur by Rabbi Mordechai Willig, Dr. Sol Roth Chair in Talmud and Contemporary Halakhah; Rosh Yeshiva; Lecturer in Talmud. The evening is part of a learning series at Shenk offered jointly by the Office of Alumni Affairs and the Women's Beit Midrash Committee at Shenk.

YU's First Woman Ph.D.

In June 1955, Dr. Doris Kraemer made history as the first woman to earn a Ph.D. from the School of Education and Community Administration at Yeshiva University. Read more»

YU in Israel

- YU Israel is looking for Israel-based companies interested in hiring YU students for a 6-week summer internship. For more information, reach out to John Perez or Susan Sheldon.
- Alumni in Israel: If you are an alum who lives in Israel, please take a moment to update your information with the alumni office. Let us know how best to reach you and share what kinds of engagement interest you and stay updated on local events and news. For questions or information, reach out to Susan Sheldon, susan.sheldon@yu.edu.

- Resources in Israel: Since Oct. 7, our Israel office has been a resource to both our visiting and local staff, students and alumni in finding meaningful ways to assist Israel in times of need. Whether you're looking to volunteer for a few hours or a few days, we can connect you with impactful opportunities. From working on farms to tying tzitzit for soldiers or cooking for families with loved ones in miluim [reserve duty], we're here to help match you with a project that makes a difference. Again, for questions or information, reach out to Susan Sheldon, susan.sheldon@yu.edu.
 - Planning a trip to Israel? Stay connected with YU to make the most of your trip! The Alumni Office at YU Israel can help with recommendations on where to go, how to have impactful volunteer opportunities and just to be a general resource to ensure you feel connected and have a meaningful experience while you're in Israel. Email Susan Sheldon at susan.sheldon@yu.edu to discuss.
